

LexisNexis Company Dossier

Description

- a. Having accurate, up-to-date information on companies is critical for business majors, job seekers, and anyone performing company research. But getting a complete picture of a company's structure, financial health, brands and competitors can be a challenge. LexisNexis® Company Dossier, a research tool used by thousands of business professionals daily, is now being made available to students and researchers seeking information about U.S. and international companies.
 - i. Business students can easily compare up to 5 companies and download financial statements for finance courses
 - ii. Students and career services departments can obtain comprehensive reports on companies during job searches
 - iii. Journalism and business students can easily track companies' latest news and PR developments

Features

- a. LexisNexis® Company Dossier seamlessly integrates with LexisNexis® Academic and delivers instant, pre-packaged desktop access to extensive, current data on 13 million companies. It collects information from multiple sources and compiles that information into a comprehensive but easily-assimilated report on a targeted company. Each company report delivers information that would require more than 60 searches using traditional search methods.
- b. To create a report, search by company name or ticker symbol from the home page of LexisNexis Academic, or perform more complex searches using an advanced search form. Results are targeted, reliable, easy-to-read information, presented in a format you select:
 - i. Snapshot—at-a-glance analysis of current information
 - ii. In the news—sorted by top publication, topic, or region
 - iii. Business Information—research & analysis reports, company profiles, and competitor, product, and brand listings
 - iv. Financial Information—SEC filings, corporate financials, and more
 - v. Legal Information—U.S. court decisions, jury verdicts, and more
 - vi. Intellectual Property Information—U.S. & European patents, and U.S. trademarks & copyrights
- c. You also have the option of creating a Customized Report. Select any combination of fields to create a report that meets your needs.
- d. In addition to the Company Dossier search forms that appear on the home page of LexisNexis Academic and within the “Business” area, additional search forms—including search forms for Bloomberg News, Experian Business Reports, Investext Current Reports, and Public Records—will appear in the “Business” area. Finally, some of the existing search forms will be augmented with new sources and restructured to offer greater search functionality.
