

New and Changed Entries February 2005

The following new and changed entries are effective on February 1. Changes are underlined; 371.391 is a new entry. Deletions are marked by strikethroughs

Edition 22

-
- > 371.01–371.07 Specific kinds of schools
- Class here specific kinds of school systems; types of education characteristic of specific kinds of schools other than public and community schools
- Class comprehensive works in 371. Class a specific topic with respect to a specific kind of school with the topic in 371.1–371.8, e.g., teaching in private schools 371.102; class a specific kind of school defined by a method of instruction or study with the method in 371.3, e.g., Montessori schools 371.392; class a specific kind of school defined by characteristics of student body with the kind in 371.82, e.g., schools for ethnic minorities 371.829, schools for African Americans 371.82996073
- See Manual at 371.01–371.8 vs. 372–374, 378*
-
- 371.39 Other methods of instruction
- Including home instruction by educational personnel, monitorial system of education, Morrison plan, rote learning, ~~Waldorf method of education~~
- See also 371.042 for home schooling*
-
- 371.391 Waldorf method
-
- 371.394 2 Honors work
- Class here honors programs, honors courses
- See also 371.264 for advanced placement*
-
- 379.11 Support of public education
- Class here financial support; comprehensive works on financial support of education

For support by specific levels of government, international support, see 379.12; for revenue sources, see 379.13; for financial support of private education, see 379.32

See also 353.824 for financial administration of agencies supporting public education

379.32 Public support of private education

Class here educational vouchers, financial support

~~Class comprehensive works on educational vouchers in 379.111~~

Class comprehensive works on financial support of education in 379.11

Abridged Edition 14

> 371.01–371.07 Specific kinds of schools

Class here specific kinds of school systems; types of education characteristic of specific kinds of schools other than public and community schools

Class comprehensive works in 371. Class a specific topic with respect to a specific kind of school with the topic in 371.1–371.8, e.g., teaching in private schools 371.102; class a specific kind of school defined by a method of instruction or study with the method in 371.3, e.g., Montessori schools 371.39; class a specific kind of school defined by characteristics of student body with the kind in 371.82, e.g., schools for ethnic minorities 371.829

See Manual at 371.01–371.8 vs. 372–374, 378

371.39 Other methods of instruction

Limited to behavior modification; computer modeling, simulation; group teaching (in which class is divided into groups, but activity is still directed by teacher); home instruction by educational personnel; individualized instruction, e.g., honors work, independent study, open classroom instruction, programmed instruction, tutoring; lecture method; Montessori method; use of drama (theater); monitorial system of education; Morrison plan; rote learning; Waldorf method of education

Class use of behavior modification in classroom discipline in 371.102; class grouping of students for open classroom instruction in 371.2; class group work that emphasizes student direction of group projects in

371.3; class comprehensive works on instructional use of computers in 371.33; class Montessori method in elementary education in 372.139

For electronic programmed instruction, see 371.33

See also 371.04 for home schooling; also 371.14 for team teaching

379.1 Specific elements of support and control of public education

Including support and control by specific levels of government, e.g., school boards and districts, international support; of specific levels of education and special education; control of curriculum, teachers and administrators, textbooks and other teaching materials; financial support, e.g., educational vouchers; revenue sources, school accountability and evaluation, school centralization and consolidation, school choice, school standards and accreditation; comprehensive works on financial support of education

Class support and control of activities involved in specific policy issues in 379.2

For use of educational vouchers in private education, see 379.3

For financial support of private education, see 379.3

See also 353.8 for financial administration of agencies supporting public education

379.3 Public policy issues in private education

Including public support, financial support, educational vouchers; public control

Class comprehensive works on financial support of education in 379.1