INTRODUCTION

The Global Council is composed of three officers and 48 delegates who are elected to represent the needs of member libraries. Member delegates ratify amendments to the Articles of Incorporation and Code of Regulations, and they also elect six members of the OCLC Board of Trustees. OCLC members can contact any Global Council delegate or officer to share ideas, offer feedback and ask questions.

The OCLC Governance Structure

OCLC GOVERNANCE

OCLC members help shape the future of the cooperative through a Board of Trustees—more than half of whom are librarians—and a Global Council of members, who are elected by Regional Councils of member libraries. This governance structure ensures regular and open dialogue between member libraries and OCLC management.

OCLC GLOBAL COUNCIL

The Global Council serves as a key discussion forum on issues of importance to the membership community and helps to inform OCLC’s strategic directions. The Global Council convenes in person twice a year. Delegates are elected to serve on the Global Council from their respective Regional Councils.

OCLC REGIONAL COUNCILS

Regional Councils facilitate connections among OCLC members in three world regions: Europe, the Middle East and Africa (EMEA); Asia Pacific; and the Americas. Members from each region elect an Executive Committee, and member delegates to the OCLC Global Council. The Regional Councils strengthen the cooperative by helping the organization understand the global and regional needs of members. Members convene at Regional Council meetings each year to keep current on issues of vital and immediate interest to OCLC.

OCLC BOARD OF TRUSTEES

In addition to the six Global Council-elected members, the Board consists of additional trustees elected by the Board itself, five of whom come from fields outside librarianship. The Board works to align OCLC’s product, research and advocacy strategies with OCLC’s mission, which is to connect people to knowledge through library cooperation. To ensure that OCLC remains a strong collaborative, the Board encourages a culture of cooperation and vigorous debate. The Board meets five times annually.
The Global Council consists of the 48 delegates from the Regional Councils and three officers elected by the Global Council to serve as leaders. The Global Council serves to provide feedback, advise on emerging and critical issues, and elevate members’ interests and opportunities to OCLC leadership and the Board of Trustees.

OCLC operates under principles and systems of shared governance across several groups: Global and Regional Councils, the Board of Trustees, and the OCLC Executive Management Team. Our members guide the development of OCLC’s programs, policies, strategy and services. That responsibility is reflected in our leadership structure.
