INTRODUCTION

The Global Council is composed of 48 regionally elected delegates and the Global Council President who work together to reflect the interests, issues, concerns and challenges that face OCLC member institutions. Member delegates elect six members of the OCLC Board of Trustees, and ratify changes to the Membership and Governance Protocols, Article IV of the Code of Regulations and Global Council and Regional Council Bylaws. OCLC members can contact any Global Council delegate or the Global Council President to share ideas, offer feedback and ask questions.

The OCLC Governance Structure

OCLC GOVERNANCE
OCLC members help shape the future of the cooperative through a Board of Trustees—more than half of whom are librarians—and a Global Council of delegates elected by their Regional Councils. This governance structure ensures regular and open dialogue between member libraries and OCLC management.

OCLC GLOBAL COUNCIL
The Global Council serves as a key discussion forum to reflect local and regional views on the issues facing libraries today. The elected delegates from the three Regional Councils come together as the Global Council to reflect their feedback, advise on emerging and critical issues, and elevate members’ interests to OCLC leadership and the Board of Trustees.

OCLC REGIONAL COUNCILS
Regional Councils facilitate connections among OCLC members in three world regions: Europe, the Middle East and Africa (EMEA); Asia Pacific; and the Americas. Members from each region elect an Executive Committee, and member delegates to the OCLC Global Council. The Regional Councils strengthen the cooperative by helping the organization understand the global and regional needs of members. Members convene at Regional Council meetings each year to keep current on issues of vital and immediate interest to OCLC.

OCLC BOARD OF TRUSTEES
In addition to the six Global Council-elected members, the Board consists of additional trustees elected by the Board itself, four of whom come from fields outside librarianship. The Board works to align OCLC’s product, research and advocacy strategies with OCLC’s mission. To ensure that OCLC remains a strong collaborative, the Board encourages a culture of cooperation and vigorous debate. The Board meets four times annually.
The Global Council consists of the 48 delegates elected from the Regional Councils and the Global Council President. The Global Council serves to bring worldwide viewpoints together to encourage, inform, and engage members in cooperative efforts that benefit libraries.

The Asia Pacific Council elects member librarians to the Asia Pacific Executive Committee, five of whom also serve as delegates to Global Council.

Asia Pacific Regional Council meetings are open to all members and provide a forum to discuss issues that are important to libraries in the region. Members can also provide feedback to OCLC about its products, services, policies and operating direction through the Global Council.
