

Panel Discussion 1: Upstream Metadata

Moderator:

Renee Register, OCLC

Panelists:

Phil Madans, Hachette Book Group

Brenna McLaughlin, Association of American University Presses

Publisher creation and distribution of pre-publication metadata

Diane Boehr, National Library of Medicine

Library creation and distribution of pre-publication metadata

Patricia Payton, R.R. Bowker

Role of the ISBN agency and data aggregators in pre-publication metadata

Suzanne Kemperman, NetLibrary

Content aggregator use of pre-publication metadata

Panel Discussion 1: Upstream Metadata

Philip Madans

Director of Publishing Standards and Practices

Hachette Book Group is a leading US trade publisher headquartered in New York, and owned by Hachette Livre, the second largest publisher in the world. In addition to selling and distributing its own imprints, HBG distributes publishing lines for Chronicle Books, Microsoft Learning, Arcade, Time Inc. Home Entertainment, Harry N. Abrams, InnovativeKids, Phaidon Press, Filipacchi Publishing, Kensington, MQ Publications, Strictly By The Book, Weinstein Books and Gildan Media.

Panel Discussion 1: Upstream Metadata

Brenna McLaughlin

Electronic and Strategic Initiatives Director

The Association of American University Presses is an organization of more than 130 nonprofit scholarly publishers based at universities, scholarly societies, research institutes, and museums. AAUP serves member presses through cooperative programs, professional development opportunities, industry research and analysis, and public advocacy of the work and interests of member presses. The Association's programs and resources help its members fulfill their common commitments to scholarship, the academy, and society.

Panel Discussion 1: Upstream Metadata

Diane Boehr
Head of Cataloging

The National Library of Medicine (NLM), on the campus of the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Maryland, is the world's largest medical library. The Library collects materials and provides information and research services in all areas of biomedicine and health care.

Panel Discussion 1: Upstream Metadata

Patricia Payton

Senior Director, Publisher Relations & Content
Development

As the exclusive U.S. ISBN and SAN Agency, Bowker® receives the most authoritative title and publisher information available, making it the world's leading source for bibliographic information. Founded in 1872, public, academic, research and government libraries rely on Bowker's wide range of reference and reporting products and services. Publishers and booksellers rely on Bowker's supply chain services and the information that drives their transactions on a daily basis.

Panel Discussion 1: Upstream Metadata

Suzanne Kemperman
Director, Publisher Relations

As OCLC's eContent division, NetLibrary represents a unique dual heritage: a trusted partner for librarians and publishers, with a firm commitment to technological innovation on behalf of end-users. NetLibrary combines the time-honored traditions of the library system with the latest in electronic publishing and content delivery.