AskQC is your source for quality issues and cataloging questions

The screenshot shows the OCLC AskQC website. At the top is the OCLC logo and a navigation bar with links for 'Release Notes', 'System Status Dashboard', and 'Contact OCLC Support'. Below this is a search bar with the placeholder text 'How can we help you?'. A dark navigation bar contains links for 'Home', 'WorldCat', and 'Metadata Quality'. The main content area features the 'AskQC' title, a 'Last updated: Jun 12, 2020' timestamp, and a brief description: 'Find AskQC office hour information, recordings, and supporting materials.' A horizontal line separates this from a paragraph explaining that AskQC@oclc.org is the email address for cataloging questions. Below this is the 'AskQC office hours' section, which includes a link to join the staff for discussions and a section for 'Time and call-in information for AskQC office hours' with a note to return for updates.
