“Loading our network’s collections into WorldCat is a major step in our strategy of increasing cooperation and visibility on the web. As a famous Basque author, Bernart Etxepare, once said: 'Heuscara, ialgui adi mundara!’ which means 'Basque, go out into the world!' Our partnership with OCLC helps to make that sentiment a reality.”

Francisca Pulgar Vernalte, Head of Service, Bibliotecas del Gobierno Vasco, Public Reading Network of Euskadi, Spain

About Voilà

Voilà, the National Union Catalogue, is a single point of access to the collections of libraries across Canada. Included are books, magazines, maps, music, and more, including works in special format (e.g., braille, large print, talking books, captioned videos, etc.), for persons who are print- or hearing-impaired.

LAC has acquired the services of OCLC, an international nonprofit library cooperative, to provide this service.
