POLICIES

(ask a civil question start a civil war)

Why not lend every format?

Why not lend for free?

Why not borrow text books
and leisure reading?

Why use the lender's due date?

Why not borrow/lend internationally?

Why bother to bill?
(for lost items)

Why not give banned borrowers another chance?

Why not do document delivery for all your users?

Why not treat ALL your patrons the same?

Why not give YOU a chance to ask why not?

Thanks!

Now, go look at the real ocean!
