Feedback we have heard

• “I like the streamlined experience of worldcat.org for my users, but I still need the more precise capabilities I get with FirstSearch.”
• “I like the switch worldcat.org can do to my WorldCat Local when we recognize a patron, but I am not sure how that relates to FirstSearch.”
• “When I am working with a customer that finds something on our worldcat.org interface (WorldCat Local quickstart), I often will jump over to search WorldCat (on FirstSearch) to do a bit more work for them.”

• Other themes:
  • Improve search results for known item or local items
  • Make it easier to do more precise functions and searches
  • More info & functionality from search results
  • Keep it simple

Summary: "Alexandra Jane, and Sukie return to the old Rhode Island seaside town where they indulged in wicked mischief under the influence of the diabolical Darryl Van Home. Darryl is gone, and their lovers of the time have aged or died, but enchantment remains in the familiar streets and scenery of the village, where they enjoyed their lusty pranks as free and empowered women. And, among the local citizenry, there are still those who remember them, and wish them ill. How they cope with the lingering traces of their evil deeds, the shocks of a mysterious counterspell, and the advancing inroads of old age are at the heart of Updike's delightful, ominous sequel." —From publisher description.

The witches of Eastwick by John Updike

Summary: "In a small New England town in that hectic era when the sixties turned into the seventies, there lived three witches. Alexandra Spofford, a sculptress, could create thunderstorms. Jane Smart, a cellist, could fly. The local gossip columnist, Sukie Rougemont, could turn milk into cream. Divorced but hardly celibate, the wonderful witches one day found themselves quite under the spell of the new man in town, Darryl Van Home, whose strobe-it hot tub room became the scene of satanic pleasures."

The witches of Eastwick: fiction by John Updike

Summary: "Publication: Cosmopolitan, vol. 197, no. 2 (Aug., 1984)."
