Heritage meets 21st Century Skills

Heritage in South-Holland

- Roman Limes
- Hollandse Waterlinie
- Atlantikwall
- Estates
- Trekvaart
- Goeree Overflakkee
- Water Triangle

The “old” approach

- Collections
- Speakers within libraries
- Trying to interest a broader audience in heritage and archeology

The new approach

- Adding 21st century skills to programs
- Drawing people with something “fun” as opposed to pure learning
- Find local and national partners to work with
- Never losing sight of the main educational goal

The activities

- Using an archeologist to educate adults about local findings
- Drawing comics with the romans
- Designing your own impenetrable fortress using Minecraft
- Building bunkers in Minecraft
- “Voorproefjes” appetisers
- Designing your own water transportation using 3d doodle pens

Break in Box

Thank you
