WorldCat is multilingual. Speak a language other than English? Studying one? Maybe you’re doing research and need a particular book printed in German? Whatever the reason, WorldCat is a great place to find what you need. If you can’t find what you want, look up what’s available at your library. If you can’t find what you need there, look up what other libraries have to loan.

Find what you want in WorldCat.
Let's get started!

1. Ask a librarian to help you bring up a WorldCat search screen on a library workstation, or visit www.worldcat.org from your computer at home or work.
2. Enter a keyword such as subject, title or a person's name and click Search. Click on the title of an item that interests you to learn more about it.
3. Inside the library, you can follow a link to our online catalog to see if the item is available. On worldcat.org, enter your location and click on the name of this library or another nearby library.

Contact your librarian for more information or help.

LANGUAGES

What you can find

• Language dictionaries
• Non-English films
• Fiction books in French
• Latin American music
• Health books in Japanese
• Country- and language-specific newspapers

• Language tapes and instructional materials

Click on the image of the world to see if the item is available. Follow a link to our online catalog to see if the item is available. Click on the title to see if the item is available.