

Library, archive and museum collaboration: Organizational and service relationships on the LAM

A meeting to further dialog and collaboration among libraries, archives and museums.

The host:

A neutral party (ideally an outside consultant) facilitating the day's discussions.

The sponsoring committee:

Typically a library representative, an archive representative, a museum representative, and sometimes an IT representative.

The idea:

Bringing together library, archive and museum staff to discuss the convergence of their goals, practices, and services.

The goal:

Concrete suggestions for how collaborations can be deepened and sustained.
