Library, archive and museum collaboration: Organizational and service relationships on the LAM

A meeting to further dialog and collaboration among libraries, archives and museums.

The host:
A neutral party (ideally an outside consultant) facilitating the day’s discussions.

The sponsoring committee:
Typically a library representative, an archive representative, a museum representative, and sometimes an IT representative.

The idea:
Bringing together library, archive and museum staff to discuss the convergence of their goals, practices, and services.

The goal:
Concrete suggestions for how collaborations can be deepened and sustained.

Agenda

9:00 - 9:30 a.m.  Gathering/coffee

9:30 - 10:00  Welcome/introductions
• Facilitator introduces goals, objectives and the agenda logistics (5 minutes)
• Sponsoring Committee briefly addresses the group (10 minutes)
• Participant introductions (15 minutes)

10:00 - 10:15  Welcome by one or more high-level personages, able to motivate and inspire—and ideally empower outcomes.

10:15 - 10:45  Setting the stage
• A short presentation providing context for the meeting.

[PowerPoint available online at: www.oclc.org/programs/ourwork/newmodes/relationship/LAMpresentation.ppt]
10:45 - 11:00  Break

11:00 - 11:45  The present
  •  Identifying existing collaborations on campus

11:45 - 12:15 p.m.  Carrots & sticks
  •  Identifying the motivation and pressure for libraries, archives and museums to collaborate

12:15 - 1:15  Lunch

1:15 - 2:15  Visioning
  •  Identifying the ideal information landscape on campus

2:15 - 3:15  Taking collaboration to the next level, part I
  •  Exploring how the collaborations discussed during the “visioning” exercise can be realized within the campus context: identifying some plans

3:15 - 3:30  Break

3:30 - 4:30  Taking collaboration to the next level, part II
  •  Exploring how the collaborations discussed during the “visioning” exercise can be realized within the campus context: putting flesh on one or more concrete plans

4:30 - 5:00  Wrap-up
  •  Review goals and accomplishments of the meeting
  •  Review post-meeting plans