This is an edited version of the chat room discussion during the Using CSS3 in Web Design webinar. A copy of this transcript is available at <http://www.oclc.org/research/events/20110426chat.pdf>.

April 26, 2011 2:11:45 PM from OCLC Research
to All Participants: Hello and thank you for joining us! We'll get started in just about 20 minutes.

April 26, 2011 2:11:47 PM from Karen Disbrow
to All Participants: Thank you for joining the CSS3 Webinar today. Please submit your questions to All Panelists.

April 26, 2011 2:19:31 PM from OCLC Research
to All Attendees: Thank you for joining us! We'll get started in about 10 minutes.

April 26, 2011 2:26:56 PM from Karen Disbrow
to All Participants: Thank you for joining us. Please address your questions to All Participants.

April 26, 2011 2:27:57 PM from Eric Phetteplace
to All Panelists: send to "All Panelists"? There is no option for All Participants in my drop-down menu

April 26, 2011 2:28:58 PM from Christopher Schmitt
to All Panelists: HI, Eric, Let's try All Panelists.

April 26, 2011 2:33:48 PM from Eric Phetteplace
to All Panelists: ...still no support for text-shadow...sigh

April 26, 2011 2:38:00 PM from Bruce Washburn
to All Participants: <http://msdn.microsoft.com/en-us/ie/ff468705.aspx>

April 26, 2011 2:43:03 PM from OCLC Research
to All Attendees: It looks like several of you have not yet joined the integrated VoIP session. See the Communicate pull-down menu on the upper left of your screen and select Integrated VoIP. You'll then be able to hear Christopher through your computer speakers or computer headset.

April 26, 2011 2:44:17 PM from Karen Disbrow
to All Participants: There is also a volume control in the drop-down menu: Click on Communicate, then Integrated VoIP, then Volume OR Ctrl+Shift+V

April 26, 2011 2:45:35 PM from Teonne Daye
to Host (privately): Will these slides be made available at a later date?

April 26, 2011 2:46:59 PM from OCLC Research
to All Participants: We will post Christopher's slides and a recording of this webinar on our Web site. The slides should be available a few hours after the webinar ends. We'll also e-mail them to all attendees.

April 26, 2011 2:47:52 PM from OCLC Research
to All Participants: Sorry--We'll also post the webinar recording in iTunes.

April 26, 2011 2:50:10 PM from Lisa Wallis
to All Panelists: so 'moz' refers to Firefox, 'webkit' to Safari?

April 26, 2011 2:52:09 PM from Debbie Smith
to All Panelists: Chrome is Webkit Based also isn't it?

April 26, 2011 2:52:24 PM from Eric Phetteplace
to All Panelists: Chrome is based off Webkit too...so why doesn't column work in Chrome? Webkit prefixes haven't necessarily been implemented across all Webkit browsers?

April 26, 2011 2:52:34 PM from Teresa Coberly
to All Panelists: If you use Text Columns what does it look like in IE? Does IE just ignore the CSS and put everything in a big blob of text?

April 26, 2011 2:52:40 PM from Eric Phetteplace
to All Panelists: ah ok

April 26, 2011 2:53:26 PM from Teresa Coberly
to All Panelists: blob of text is a technical term :)

April 26, 2011 3:02:50 PM from Jeannie Colson
to All Panelists: are there accessibility issues with custom fonts?

April 26, 2011 3:15:02 PM from Teresa Coberly
to All Panelists: Did I miss it or did you say what browsers support text-shadow?

April 26, 2011 3:23:14 PM from Travis Lloyd to All Panelists: Can you apply border-radius directly on an ?

April 26, 2011 3:53:07 PM from OCLC Research
to All Attendees: Two additional questions have come in. The first is from Genny Engel: CSS validators complain about browser-specific attributes (moz-whatever or webkit-whatever) - is there any option for working around this other than by detecting the browser and loading a browser-specific stylesheet?

April 26, 2011 3:53:52 PM from OCLC Research
to All Attendees: The second question is from James Otto: Can animation be applied to tags other than ?

April 26, 2011 3:54:03 PM from Teresa Coberly
to All Panelists: Do you design for a specific browser, for instance IE, and then put in fixes for the other browsers?

April 26, 2011 3:55:37 PM from Debbie Smith
to All Panelists: Do the animatiins work on the mobile platforms?

April 26, 2011 4:01:02 PM from Debbie Smith
to All Panelists: thanks!

April 26, 2011 4:06:09 PM from OCLC Research
to All Attendees: Thank you all for joining us today! If you have additional questions for Christopher, please e-mail him at schmitt@heatvision.com. We'll send you his slides and post them on our Web site shortly. We'll also post the webinar recording on our Web site and in iTunes in a few days.

April 26, 2011 4:06:34 PM from Debbie Smith
