If you have any questions for Jonathan, please submit them by chat to Everyone at any time. Thank you.

From Ken Varnum to Everyone (01:23:10 PM):

Is there a repository of connectors that's shared with Umlaut users, or are connectors inherently specific to a given library?

From Bill Dueber to Everyone (01:32:29 PM):

Repo in question: https://github.com/team-umlaut/umlaut/tree/master/lib/service\_adaptors

From Bill Dueber to Everyone (01:35:38 PM):

Potential for using schema.org / rdfA?

From Roy Tennant to Everyone (01:37:00 PM):

The WorldCat Knowledgebase (and therefore API access) is free to anyone with a cataloging subscription. Therefore, any library with a cataloging subscription could modify Umlaut to work with our knowledgebase.
