OCLC Research Purpose:

to scale and accelerate library learning and innovation.

Our objectives

Engage members as advocates who participate effectively in the cooperative.

Activate communities of practice that help libraries plan with confidence, position with effect, and make an impact.

Generate knowledge, evidence and models that will improve libraries.

The OCLC Research Library Partnership

A Platform to actively engage with OCLC Research and its Partners

Trusted Resource helping libraries understand research in context with confidence, position with effect, and make an impact.
